

Free Training Presented by:
The Regional Homeless Councils and the Maine CoC Resource Committee

Fair Housing Training

Presenter:
Patricia Ender, Esq.

Pine Tree Legal

When: 9:00-11:00 am, Friday, December 13, 2019

Locations: Live presentation at MaineHousing, 353 Water Street, Augusta

Additional “GoToMeeting” group sites with video are available at:

- Community Health and Counseling Services, 42 Cedar St., Rm. 304 in Bangor
- Shalom House, 106 Gilman St. in Portland

If you are unable to attend one of the in-person locations, please register for the GoToWebinar at:

<https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/3345715329406316045>

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar.

What do renters and landlords need to know? This training will cover:

- fair housing laws
- your rights as a renter
- assistance and therapy animals (in housing and at emergency shelters)
- reasonable accommodations landlords are sometimes required to make.

Who should attend?

Landlords, housing providers, shelter staff, General Assistance staff, case managers, and anyone who is concerned about fair treatment and housing rights.

Any questions? Contact Resource Committee Co-Chairs, Mike Mooney- mmooney@newbeginmaine.org or Norman Maze- NMaze@shalomhouseinc.org