BILLS - Updates

President Biden’s Housing Supply Action Plan – No new update – On 5/16 the White House released a comprehensive plan for combatting one of the major causes of inflation: the rising cost of rent and the severe shortage of homes affordable and available to America’s lowest-income and most marginalized households. The “Housing Supply Action Plan” includes a series of measures designed to increase the supply of housing over the next five years, including (1) using federal transportation funds to incentivize jurisdictions to reduce restrictive local zoning laws; (2) supporting manufactured housing, accessory dwelling units, and small-scale developments; and (3) streamlining federal financing and funding sources to help lower costs and speed development.

S 4181, LIHTC Financing Enabling Long-term Investment in Neighborhood Excellence (LIFELINE) Act – No new update – On 5/11, Senators Leahy and Connolly introduced the LIFELINE Act which would allow state, local, territorial, and tribal governments to use Coronavirus State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds (FRF) to make long-term loans to Housing Credit developments. Senators Collins and King have signed on as original co-sponsors. The bill is companion legislation to the House version of the LIFELINE Act (H.R. 7078), introduced by Representatives Alma Adams (D-NC) and David Rouzer (R-NC) in March (co-sponsored by Congresswoman Pingree). The LIFELINE Act would remedy the current issue of ARPA funding not blending well with the Low-Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC program). Both the House and Senate versions of the LIFELINE Act allow FRF to be loaned to Housing Credit developments as a soft financing source to fill debts with loan maturities of 30 years or more and allow repayments on those loans to be used to finance affordable housing, including future Housing Credit properties.

The bill would provide $3 billion annually to fund the Emergency Assistance Fund to help low-income households who experience a catastrophic unexpected event that threatens their ability to remain stably housed and potentially fall into homelessness. Examples are fluctuation in income, car repairs, or medical bills. Work is underway to have Senator Collins and Senator King co-sponsor this legislation.

HR 7191 Homes for All Act – No new update – On 3/24 Congresswoman Omar reintroduced the Homes for All Act. The bill would invest $1 trillion in dramatically expanding public housing and the national Housing Trust Fund and would guarantee housing as a human right. The bill would also invest an additional $200 billion over 10 years in the national Housing Trust Fund to build 3.5 million new permanently affordable homes for extremely low-income families. The bill would repeal the Faircloth Amendment (which currently prohibits the creation of additional public housing), make ongoing public housing operating and capital expenses mandatory, and create a new program to help protect families from gentrification and displacement.

HR 7196 Flexibility in Addressing Rural Homelessness Act – No new update – On 3/24 Congresswoman Axne and Congressman Frank introduced the “Flexibility in Addressing Rural Homelessness Act”. On 5/17 the House ordered to be Reported in the nature of a Substitute by Voice Vote. The bipartisan Act would allow Continuums of Care in rural areas to operate with more flexibility in spending homelessness funding provided through the “McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act.” The legislation would allow McKinney-Vento funding to be used for short-term emergency housing in motels or hotels, repairs to make housing fit for habitation, and staff training and capacity building

- The national Housing Trust Fund ($45 billion);
- Supportive housing programs for the elderly and people with disabilities ($900 million);
- HOME Investment Partnership Programs ($40 billion);

It aligns the HUD definition of homelessness with the definitions utilized by other federal agencies, increases data transparency within the current system, and allows localities to prioritize program models that best meet the needs of their communities.

S 3350 Helping Foster and Homeless Youth Achieve Act – No New Update – On 12/9 the Helping Foster and Homeless Youth Achieve Act was introduced in the U.S. Senate by Senators Jacky Rosen (D-NV) and Rob Portman (R-OH). Waiving the barrier of application fees will increase access to postsecondary education for homeless and foster youth.
