

Point in Time (PIT) Count
Training Review, Q&A, and Office Hours

Friday, January 19, 12 to 1:30pm
Monday, January 22, 10am to 2pm

ABOUT

The Point-in-Time (PIT) Count is a survey of people experiencing homelessness in the United States. The data is crucial to develop and fund programs and services. This year's PIT Count is on Tuesday, January 23, with Service Based Count days on January 24, 25, and 26.

Friday, January 19 - Training and Q&A

12 to 12:40pm

View PIT Count Training videos

12:40 to 1:30pm

Q&A with MaineHousing staff and Hub Coordinators

Monday, January 22 - Drop-In Office Hours

April Reed with MaineHousing will be available to answer questions

We encourage you to visit the Maine PIT website first - on there, you can sign up to volunteer, take the training on your own time, learn how to download the app and register, and contact your Hub Coordinator.

<https://www.maineplit.org/>

Friday Training / Q&A

Click here to attend

Meeting ID: 834 9616 8006
Passcode: 108386

Monday Office Hours

Click here to attend

Meeting ID: 056581409
Password: p7mFsdeJuh